ABOUT

Eric Light Odame is a Bible teacher and preacher, and the founder of Bereans Network Ministry, a non-denominational teaching ministry in Accra, Ghana, anchored in Acts 17:11. He is the author of Who Do I Marry? The Psychology of Marriage on How to Choose a Life Partner, and teaches on discernment, the renewed mind, marriage, vision and leadership. His teaching is plain, direct and anchored in Scripture. Every session ends with "examine it yourself" questions, because he expects listeners to test what he says against the Bible. He serves churches, fellowships, campus groups and men's ministries across denominations.
